

Roaming thru Romans Series
The Four “Much Mores”
Ralph “Yankee” Arnold

Lesson #5

TEXT: Rom. 5:8

Much more is always something that accompanies Grace.

- I. Rom. 5:9 “Much more then,
 - a. being now justified by his blood,
 - b. we shall be saved from wrath through him.”

- II. Rom. 5:10 “For if, when we were enemies, we were reconciled to God by the death of his Son, much more,
 - a. being reconciled, (a present state that cannot change)
 - b. we shall be saved (kept saved) by his life.”

The two men Rom. 5:12-21

(A comparison but much more)

| | |
|-------------------------------------|--|
| Sin came thru Adam (one man) | Righteousness thru Christ (one man) |
| Death by one sinful deed | Eternal life by one righteous deed (cross) |
| Death passed upon all men | Eternal life passed upon all believers |
| All men condemned | All believers made righteous (justified) |

Rom. 5:17 “...much more”

| | |
|---|---|
| One man’s offence death reigned | One man’s obedience, many receive abundance of grace for many sins and the gift of righteousness shall reign. |
| One man’s disobedience many made Sinners vs. 19 | One man’s obedience many made righteous |

Rom. 5:20-21 “...much more”

| | |
|----------------------------|--|
| Where sin abounded vs. 20 | Grace did much more abound |
| As sin hath reigned vs. 21 | So might Grace reign through righteousness unto Eternal Life |

The key word in this passage of scripture is “one.” It is mentioned 14 times. By one man, Adam, one sin condemned all men born into the human race; even so, by one man, Christ, all those born again into God’s family, are made righteous forever.

Roaming thru Romans Series
The Four “Much Mores”
Ralph “Yankee” Arnold

Lesson #5

TEXT: Rom. 5:8

Much more is always something that accompanies Grace.

- I. Rom. 5:9 “Much more then,
 - c. being now justified by his blood,
 - d. we shall be saved from wrath through him.”

- II. Rom. 5:10 “For if, when we were enemies, we were reconciled to God by the death of his Son, much more,
 - c. being reconciled, (a present state that cannot change)
 - d. we shall be saved (kept saved) by his life.”

The two men Rom. 5:12-21

(A comparison but much more)

| | |
|-------------------------------------|--|
| Sin came thru Adam (one man) | Righteousness thru Christ (one man) |
| Death by one sinful deed | Eternal life by one righteous deed (cross) |
| Death passed upon all men | Eternal life passed upon all believers |
| All men condemned | All believers made righteous (justified) |

Rom. 5:17 “...much more”

| | |
|---|---|
| One man’s offence death reigned | One man’s obedience, many receive abundance of grace for many sins and the gift of righteousness shall reign. |
| One man’s disobedience many made Sinners vs. 19 | One man’s obedience many made righteous |

Rom. 5:20-21 “...much more”

| | |
|----------------------------|--|
| Where sin abounded vs. 20 | Grace did much more abound |
| As sin hath reigned vs. 21 | So might Grace reign through righteousness unto Eternal Life |

The key word in this passage of scripture is “one.” It is mentioned 14 times. By one man, Adam, one sin condemned all men born into the human race; even so, by one man, Christ, all those born again into God’s family, are made righteous forever.