I. Life is uncertain
   a. Scripture always refers to the brevity of life. Psa. 39:4-5
   b. One step between me and death. 1 Sam. 20:3
   c. Makes one think of eternity Ecc. 3:11
   d. We do not know what tomorrow may bring forth.

II. Life is dependent (vs 15) on God’s sustaining power.
   a. Due to his overall purpose in general
   b. Due to his purpose in you personally
   c. Due to your choices to obey or disobey

III. Life is accountable
   a. Your choices have not been predetermined, but the results of your choices have.
      I. Study the Word to make the best choices.
      II. Study the Word to know results of your choices beforehand.
      III. Predestination is an act of God (what He purposes to do).
      IV. Foreknowledge is an attribute of God (what He knows before it happens).
      V. God given opportunities comes in giving us choices to make.
   b. Your choices are known by the foreknowledge of God, but God did not make you choose the way you did.

IV. Life is choices (Look at some of the following verse to understand consequences to your decisions).
   b. In service: Rom. 8:28, Eph. 2:10
   c. In consideration: 1 Chron. 28:9-10, Matt. 11:20-23

V. Life is choices (Look at some of the following verse to understand consequences to your decisions).
   b. In service: Rom. 8:28, Eph. 2:10
   c. In consideration: 1 Chron. 28:9-10, Matt. 11:20-23