TEXT: Rom. 3:30 “Seeing it is one God, which shall justify the circumcision (Jews) by faith, and uncircumcision (Gentiles or nations) through faith.”

(Answer the following questions)

I. Rom. 3:3 Shall the unbelievers make the faithfulness of God of none affect?

II. Rom. 3:5 Is God unrighteous to take vengeance upon man for sinning against him?

III. Rom. 3:6 How do you believe God should Judge the world?

IV. Rom. 3:7-8 Why am I also judged as a sinner?
   a. From a Jewish viewpoint
   b. From a Gentile viewpoint
   c. From Paul’s viewpoint (why can’t a believer who has been forgiven from all his sins live in sin?)

V. Rom. 3:9 Who is better than who?

VI. Rom. 3:27 If a man is saved only by believing (Rom. 3:26), where is boasting then?

VII. Rom. 3:29 Is there one God of the Jews and another God of the Gentiles; or just one God to judge both?

VIII. Rom. 3:31 Do we sidestep the law, when we trust Christ only by faith?
